

JELF Ambassador 411

Mission Statement:

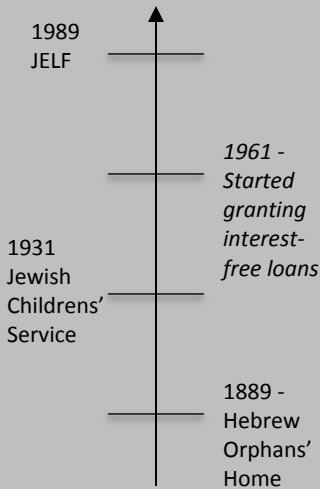

JELF provides interest-free, last dollar loans for Jewish students in need for higher education.

Important Items to Note About JELF Loans

- JELF loans are granted annually (students have to reapply each year)
- JELF has 2 loan application periods each year (March-April and the month of Sept)
- JELF loans are “last dollar” and bridge the gap between what a student has and a student still needs for school
- Loan criteria basics:
 - Jewish
 - Resident of 5-state region (FL, GA, NC, SC, VA (excluding metro DC))
 - Demonstrate need
 - Be enrolled full-time in school and maintain 2.0 GPA
 - Recipients are given an 8-year graduated repayment rate
 - Have a designated co-signer

JELF History

Just a few of our successful JELFies:

“Without JELF, my dream of going to law school in NYC wouldn’t be possible.”

Alexis Shankman,
West Palm Beach, FL

“I am a graphic designer who has designed several recent JELF brochures!”

Hannah Boresow,
Atlanta, GA

“I am proud that JELF helped me with both undergrad and medical school.”

Dr. Steve Waronker,
Board Member, Atlanta, GA

For more JELFie stories of impact, visit jelf.org

In 2018, JELF loaned $1,011,266 to 279 students.

99% repayment rate (for 10+ years!)

JELF raised $1.36 million from 1063 donors in 2018, which represents an 28% increase from 2017!

$12.5 million in loans granted to date!

A $5K interest-free loan will save someone approx. $2,750 in interest!

JELF's reserve currently has just under $4 million.